

The Shalimar Police Department reserves the right to, and refrain from, publicly posting policies that are considered sensitive or tactical in nature.

Please Note: The Shalimar Police Department Directives Policies are constantly being reviewed and revised, and the website manual is periodically updated. This may result in the current directives and procedures differing from those contained on this site, and are provided as a reference only. If you need the most current version of any SPD directive, please request a copy through the Records Section at the Shalimar Police Department.
